      No guns in Australia works fine, don't know anyone who has a gun and can't remember the last time we had a mass shooting (over 20 30 years ago)

      Agreed. We don't have a gun culture mentality at all. Most Aussies wouldn't know where or how to get a gun.

   Think about how much mental health treatment you can buy for veterans when you don't spend money on a big campaign wall con to prevent mythical invasions. Twenty Five Billion is a big number.

The right to bear arms was built on the notion that we could form a militia to fight back against an unjust government. Is that realistic today? A nuclear bomb is an arm. Do you have the right to own that? Gun Reform Now!! No one is taking your guns.

California gun laws are as strict as they can possibly be without actually just taking your guns. What do you suggest? Mental health needs to be addressed, which is also a slippery slope. You can't stop a madman on a mission. They will find a way

Good to know. Now I have another country to add to my response. My kids have to have 4 active shooter lock down drills a year starting at 5yrs old. Mine got caught in a bathroom during one and couldn't leave. 8 yrs later, won't use in school for fear of being trapped.

Just think if the bouncer would've been armed? He could could've stopped the shooter. California has some of the toughest gun laws. Why didn't that stop the gunman. There is a moral issue, family issue, mental health issue in this country. Stop blaming one person.

Guns haven't changed and nor has the majority of our laws or schools in decades. Yet something mentally has within our youth to encourage or prompt these incidents.

I'm surprised by the way some people think. Criminals will always find a way to get guns. Mentally unstable people can hide their illness even from those closest to them. Don't take away from the innocent and think it will stop the evil. We have a right to protect our lives.

Other countries don't have a raving addiction problem creating vast criminal activity..some don't even have running water. The Pharmaceutical companies are destroying us from the inside. Our court system is a joke. The laws are great for the criminals.

I have met Principal Demoss & he is a good man. He made a mistake & I hope he does what he can to correct it. @aplusk is deserving not only of citation, but admiration. One of my favorite actors who made so many smile on screen, is now making an even greater difference off of it.

I have met Principal Demoss & he is a good man. He made a mistake & I hope he does what he can to correct it. @aplusk is deserving not only of citation, but admiration. One of my favorite actors who made so many smile on screen, is now making an even greater difference off of it.

Their sex life, was their sex life - it was not just her sex life. True or not. Ya idk. I've just always found it not only trashy, but incredibly disrespectful when someone talks about and discloses another person's sexual experiences

That is truly the best and most peaceful path to take, Ashton. No matter how flat you make a pancake, it's still has 2 sides. The past is the past. Keep looking at your children and wife and towards a happy future with them and for them ❤️

I'm so tired of pundits telling people what to think. They don't give the American people any credit for their own intelligence and In fact they cause people to reject what's in plain sight.

Their sex life, was their sex life. it was not just her sex life. True or not. Ya idk. I've just always found it not only trashy, but incredibly disrespectful when someone talks about and discloses another person's sexual experiences

That is truly the best and most peaceful path to take, Ashton. No matter how flat you make a pancake, it's still has 2 sides. The past is the past. Keep looking at your children and wife and towards a happy future with them and for them ❤️

Whenever I see Jerry Maguire and see that he named his manifesto "The Things We Think But Do Not Say", think of you and the book you didn't write

Gonna watch that TV show though.

      Think of all the factory workers and delivery drivers being put at risk (blood is on your hands). Much simpler to just donate to those relief efforts out of your pocket. I mean, y'all can afford it right? No one "needs" 10s of millions of dollars. Am I doing this right?

      Wouldn't this help factory workers keep their jobs as well as support those relief efforts? Suppose the factory doesn't have enough work and they lose their jobs?

      I wanted to help too, so I made some sandwiches for hospital workers, volunteered to cook for the elderly and donated food to a start up food bank. It is not complicated. Give people money. Stop monetizing the pandemic.
